

Words That Describe My Success

You are ready to create a list of words that describe your success. Pick the words that best describe the person you want to become and the things you want to accomplish. Pick some role models. Don't worry about being perfect because this list will change.

1. These words describe the person I want to become:

2. These words describe what I want to accomplish:

3. These people are my role models:

4. Write a date 3 months from now: